SATURDAY MORNING, AUG. 8, 1868.

Religious.
Divine Service will be held every Tuesday afternoon at the Episcopal Church at 5 o'clock P. M. until further notice.

Ice Cream.
The ladies will furnish Ice Cream at Dr. Shuler's on Tuesday afternoons, and at the Old Female College on Friday afternoons, for the benefit of the Episcopal Church.

Crop Prospects.
Rather too much rain, but we are already sure of a plenty of provisions, and a fair crop of Cotton. Less Cotton is planted than last year, and we expect a yield of about one-fourth less, of rather better average in quality. Orangeburg is getting righted by degrees. The planters are learning to work themselves, rather than employ unprofitable labor, and are quitting in disgust the "partnership" plan. We venture to predict that one half the planters in this District will hire for wages next year, or not employ freedmen at all.

Salesday.
There was a large number of delegates to the Central Democratic Club in Orangeburg on Monday, and great enthusiasm prevailed. All were in earnest, and ready to work heartily for the success of the Democratic Ticket. The following is a list of the delegates to the Central Club, as far as we have been able to obtain their names. Others were present, but, having failed to enroll their names as such delegates, we only publish those we find on record.

We will be pleased to republish the list complete, if our friends will send us the names of delegates not mentioned:

Published by Worthington & Lewis Baltimore, Md.

THE LAND WE LOVE. For August contains fifteen original articles. Comparative Generalship exposes the emptiness of Grant's claim to be a great commander. The Deceit of Religion in the South is a thoughtful article by Mr. Manigault. There are two tales of fiction and several essays.

The frontispiece is a beautiful steel-plate engraving of General Ashby.

[From the Lynchburg Virginian.]
A Coloured Man's Appeal—What has Congress Done for Us?

This is the question now in the mouths of the coloured people of Lynchburg. What has Congress done for us? They have forcibly, fraudulently, deceitfully and dishonestly alienated us from our old masters, who were our friends, who knew us entirely, who sympathized with us, and have banded us together in oath-bound leagues for the purpose of controlling our votes, and making us their slaves. We are starving for bread, as the wages of our allegiance to carpet-bag adventurers, the tools of Congress, who will ruin us, if need be, so that they get office. Congress has done nothing for us. The leaders of the Freedmen's Bureau, and the carpet-bag politicians have been fooling us for three years, telling us to hold on to the league party, with the hope that Congress would soon do something great for us—that we should soon have hotches and lands. These false promises have been used by corrupt men, for corrupt purposes, that we might be fooled and they get office. We have been duped long enough. These empty-crawled adventurers use us as tools that they may get office, and we are left to perish while they prosper. What do they tell us now? If you vote for the Democrats you vote yourselves back into slavery.

"If you vote against the constitution made at Richmond you vote yourselves back into slavery." These statements are all false, and these men know it. Slavery is abolished forever; nobody wishes to restore it; the Constitution of the United States forbids it, and the Democratic party would not restore it if they could. Slavery is gone, and the only fear of servitude to the coloured man is from the Loyal League, ruled by unknown adventurers who come like vultures from the North seeking carrion. They are our enemies at heart, they will make us slaves. They fool us; we trust them, and vote for them. They laugh at our folly and we perish.

O, my coloured brethren, quit the League before it is too late! Congress has done nothing for us and intends to do nothing for us. The Freedmen's Bureau has done nothing for us and intends to do nothing. We perish while our natural friends, the white men among whom we were raised, are yet willing to rent us lands to work, and to protect us in the enjoyment of our privileges. Just look at the men who come into the League with white skins. Who are they, and what do they come for, and what will they do for us? They are drunks who have done nothing for themselves; spongers who would eat without work; men who have failed in every honourable employment. They come for office; they come that we may serve them and not that they may serve us. They all want office, and they all are unworthy of office, incompetent men who were never heard of except as objects of contempt till the leagues were formed. They will do nothing for us. Men who will not work for their own wives and children will not work for us.

If we will do our duty, work and be industrious, we can make a good living, but we must not array ourselves against the owners of all the property of the country. We must be friends to them, and we will have bread, and they will be friends to us.

Come out from the Leagues and live, or hold on to the Leagues and perish. That is the issue. Congress has done nothing for us.

The Anderson (Texas) Gladiator is informed that a freedman was hung near Huntsville, a few days ago, by Loyal Leaguers. It seems that this unfortunate freedman went ignorantly to a meeting of the League, sat with them in their deliberations, and when they found out that he was not "one of them," they took him to the woods and hung him to a tree.
